The Raven, The Black Cat

Full Screen

1935, 1934. Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi double feature.

Both of these films are based loosely on stories by Edgar Allan Poe.

In The Raven, Lugosi is the bad guy and Karloff is the relative good guy. In The Black Cat they switch places. The Black Cat is the best with striking, imaginative set designs in villainous Karloff's art deco looking mansion. Also, you get to see Bela string Boris up and skin him alive with a knife.

The only other movie that Karloff and Lugosi starred in together in the 1930s was The Invisible Ray in 1934.
